

Q 2: What is the ruling on working in banks and on the salaries paid to their employees?

A: According to what is mentioned in the answer of the first question, working in banks that deal in usury is unlawful because the employees are either scribes of usurious calculations, receivers of the money which is used in usury, givers of this money, holders or transferors of their securities from an office to another, or from a place to another or suppliers of services to people who work in the bank or outside it. Hence, they perform a direct or indirect unlawful act. The salary which the employees take for their work is prohibited.

(Part No : 13, Page No: 345)

Permanent Committee for Scholarly Research and Ifta'

Member	Member	Committee Deputy Chairman	The Chairman
`Abdullah ibn Mani`	`Abdullah ibn Ghudayyan	`Abdul-Razzaq `Afify	Ibrahim ibn Muhammad Al Al- Shaykh